8th February 2023

Dear Parents/Carers,

This year World Book Day is on Thursday 2nd March and, as always, we will be celebrating in school. We have a number of events happening on the day, including:

- Fancy Dress – come to school as your favourite book character
- Bring and Share – bring a favourite book (named please) from home to share with your class.
- Spoon Character Competition – turn your wooden spoon into a character from a book and enter into our competition. Your spoon is provided by school; children will have an introduction to this activity in assembly and a powerpoint is on the WEBSITE here for ideas. Spoons to be brought in to school (again, named please) on World Book Day and displayed in the hall on designated tables. Winners will be chosen by guests invited in to school and prizes sent home that day.
- Themed Reading Activities – during the day, pupils will participate in activities linked to their 'author of the term' and they will work together to create an enticing reading area in class.

All these activities are optional.

I hope you agree, this will be a fun-packed day with lots of links to our love of reading at Stanford School.

Later in March (date to be confirmed) we will be holding a book Fair where children can spend their World Book Day token if you haven't already spent it by then.

As usual, keep a watch out on our Website and Facebook page to view all that goes on in school on the day.

Yours sincerely

Mrs J Smith
